

LAST Teen Leader Training of the Year

Monday, April 5, 2010

6:30- 8:30 pm

At the CCE Oswego Office in Mexico

Who is invited to attend: Any enrolled Oswego County 4-H'er who is 13 or older and has not previously attended training.

What is happening: At this training, Linda Brosch, 4-H Team Coordinator and Emily Anderson, Oswego County AmeriCorps member, will be training teens in how to become a better leader. They will be using Learning for Life, a curriculum that was written by the Georgia State Cooperative Extension.

Why should you attend: This training will not only help you be a better Teen Leader at office sponsored programs but also within your own club. You will learn songs, games and icebreakers too.

Register for this program by emailing Linda at lcr23@cornell.edu or calling the 4-H Office at 963-7286 ext 401.
